

Graham S. Lowe, Ph.D.

Graham Lowe has over 30 years of organizational, labour market, and policy consulting experience across Canada and internationally. He is president of The Graham Lowe Group Inc., a workplace consulting and research firm. He also was a founding partner (2005–08) of the Great Place to Work® Institute Canada, an affiliate of the U.S.-based global consulting firm specializing in transforming workplace cultures. All of his consulting projects involve extensive knowledge synthesis and transfer to managers, employees, unions and professional associations. He is Professor Emeritus at the University of Alberta and has been a visiting professor, lecturer, and researcher at other universities in Canada, Europe, and Asia.

Graham is the author of several books, including Creating Healthy Organizations: How Vibrant Workplaces Inspire Employees to Achieve Sustainable Success. A thoroughly updated and expanded 2nd edition of this book will be published in spring 2020. His latest book, with Frank Graves, is entitled Redesigning Work: A Blueprint for Canada's Future Well-Being and Prosperity. These books are published by Rotman UTP Publishing (the business book imprint of University of Toronto Press).

Graham has given hundreds of conference talks and interactive workshops across Canada and internationally. He is a recipient of the Canadian Workplace Wellness Pioneer Award and holds a PhD in Sociology from the University of Toronto.

Graham has contributed many articles to practitioner publications and the media, including The Globe & Mail, Policy Options, Canadian HR Reporter, HR Professional, Education Canada, Health & Productivity Management, Canadian Business, Healthcare Quarterly, Healthcare Papers and Qmentum Quarterly.